We believe in being clear and open about how we collect and use data related to you. In the spirit of transparency, this policy provides detailed information about how and when we use Cookies. This Privacy Policy applies only to European Union-based users. If you are a non-European Union-based user, please refer to the Privacy Policy applicable in the relevant jurisdiction.

1 How we use cookies, tags, and other similar technologies

1.1. Please read this Cookie Policy carefully. This policy describes our information practices relating to using our web site <https://guru.lorgar.eu/> and all our services (collectively, the 'website'). 1.2. This Cookie Policy should be read together with the terms and conditions posted elsewhere on our website, including our Privacy Policy and our website Terms and Conditions.

2 Cookies

2.1. A Cookie is a small text file that includes a unique identifier sent by a web server to your computer, mobile phone, or any other internet-enabled device when you visit a website. Cookies are widely used to make sites work efficiently and collect information about users' online preferences. For simplicity, this Policy refers to Cookies, but we may use other similar technologies in the same way.

3 How do we use Cookies?

3.1. We use cookies to record session information and provide our services to you. We use this information to decide on ways to improve the services we offer you by making browsing easy, providing more personalized service, tailoring the recommendations and advertising, which you see on our website, and our own analysis, which helps us develop and improve our website. 3.2. We use all or some of the following categories of cookies on our website: 1. Essential Cookies. These cookies are essential for parts of our website to operate. They allow you to move around our website and allow us to recognize you within our website, so we can provide you with the service you have asked for, such as remembering your sign-in details. 2. Functional Cookies. These cookies help us customize our site content based on your preferences. They remember the choices you make, your language, and the country you visit our website from. The information these cookies collect may be anonymized, and they cannot track your browsing activity on other websites. 3. Performance Cookies. These cookies collect information on how you use our website to help us improve areas such as navigation and to help us fix technical issues or errors. For example, we use these Cookies to help us understand how you arrive at our website, browse, or use our website, and highlight areas where we can improve. The information stored by these cookies never shows personal details from which your identity can be established.

4 How do I reject of Cookies?

4.1. You can disable Cookies in your browser at any time. For instructions on how to block, delete or disable any cookies, please consult your browser's 'Help' or 'Support' sections.

Please note that by deleting our cookies or disabling future cookies you may not be able to access certain areas or features of our website. 4.2. Please consult the following links for information on Cookies management according to your browser: •Chrome: support.google.com. •Edge: support.microsoft.com. •Firefox: support.mozilla.org. •Internet Explorer: support.microsoft.com. •Safari: support.apple.com. •Opera: help.opera.com. 4.3. You can find general information and opt-out resources at youronlinechoices.eu.

5 Policy Changes

5.1. From time to time, we may change and/or update this Cookie Policy. If this Cookie Policy changes in any way, we will post an updated version on this page. We encourage you to check this page regularly to stay informed about our information practices and changes to such. Any changes to this Cookie Policy will go into effect on posting to this page.
